- During the summer of 1948 WU Tien-wang (伍天旺) and CH'EN T'ien (陳天) of the Malayan Communist Party contacted the South China Intelligence Bureau and requested this bureau to send 60 reinforcements with a knowledge of Malayan to the aid of the Malayan Communist Party. It appears that the recruitment of these people was effected in or near Hong Kong and that some if not all left Hong Kong for Malaya in September. It is believed that these reinforcements went in three parties, each consisting of a leader and nineteen other persons.
